

American Academy of Audiology Nominations and Elections Timeline 2018-2019

September 21:	Deadline to receive nominations.
September-October:	Initial review of nominees for eligibility; Nominations chair contacts all eligible nominees via email and invites submission of applications by the deadline.
November 1:	Deadline for receipt of applications from nominees. Nominees must complete full applications and submit with conflict of interest form and headshot (to be included in Audiology Today and on the Academy web site if selected for final slate) by the deadline.
November 1 – 30:	Committee to reviews and score applications using rubric.
December:	Slate goes forward to the Academy board for approval.
January – March:	Preparation of election site; candidates to prepare videos for posting on the web site.
March-April:	Candidates announced in the March/April issue of Audiology Today , on web site, and in weekly e-newsletter. Candidates' videos are available through the Academy web site.
Late April/May:	Election opens and closes 30 days later.
Late May/Early June:	Candidates notified by Academy president and results of the election announced.