

Speaker Agreement

All presenters must agree to the terms of the Speaker Agreement prior to entering a proposal. The Speaker Agreement reads as follows:

On behalf of myself and any co-presenters, should this presentation be selected, I/we agree that this presentation is offered voluntarily and understand and agree to the following terms related to the presentation and its use by the American Academy of Audiology:

- Agree to pay for all travel expenses to attend AAA 2019 including the registration fee, unless otherwise signed and agreed upon with the Academy.
- Agree to present this course on the assigned date, time, and place during AAA 2019.
- During my presentation, I will not engage in any type of promotional marketing or selling of any product or service, and I will not disparage the Academy in any way.
- Warrant that my presentation is my own original work, that I have the full authority to enter into this Agreement, and that I am the copyright holder or that I have obtained all necessary permissions or licenses from any individuals or organizations whose material is included or used in my presentation.
- I agree to indemnify the Academy for any claims that may be asserted as a result of the violation of these representations and warranties. Unless otherwise specified in writing: grant the American Academy of Audiology all of the necessary rights to record this presentation and to use it in any audio formats, including but not limited to creating synced versions of the presentation. Note: Learning Labs are not recorded.
- To the best of my knowledge, my presentation does not/will not violate any proprietary or personal rights of others (including any copyright, trademark and privacy rights), is/will be factually accurate, and contains nothing defamatory or otherwise unlawful. I have the full authority to enter into this agreement and have (or will have by the time of presentation) obtained all necessary permissions or licenses from any individuals or organizations whose material is included or used in my presentation.
- I agree to provide handouts for my presentation for attendee use through the presenter portal. If handouts are not provided separately I agree the submitted slides will become the handouts.
- I grant the American Academy of Audiology a royalty free license to use, reproduce and distribute my presentation (Including all handouts, PowerPoint presentations and audio recording of session) in any way in the future, with appropriate attribution to me. I understand that this license does not change the fact that I retain copyright ownership of my presentation and does not prohibit me from using my presentation in any way or from allowing others to use it.
- I give consent for the American Academy of Audiology (AAA) to record my presentation in audio and/or visual form. I understand that AAA is the sole copyright owner of the recording and can distribute and sell it including publishing on eAudiology, along with any supporting materials.
- I agree to consider allowing the American Academy of Audiology to publish and market the material presented at an Academy event to all Academy members, subscribers, and customers in Academy informational publications such as, but not limited to Audiology Today, AT Extra or on the Academy website. This will help to further the Academy's mission and vision: to be essential in the professional lives of audiologists.
- I agree to write an article or be interviewed by an Academy publication if requested.

If you have any questions about the terms of the agreement, please email us at presenters@audiology.org. Submissions will not be considered without a signed agreement.
