Kris English, PhD, Academy President announced that the Academy would likely set a new record for attendance at AudiologyNOW! 2010. In reviewing Academy initiatives she reported that October 2010 would mark the third annual National Audiology Awareness Month and National Protect your Hearing Month. She reported that the second Academy Research Conference at AN! was supported by a conference grant from NIH. She also mentioned the Hear to Read Campaign which was launched to help pediatric audiology. President Elect Patti Kricos discussed Project Audiology: a 2020 Vision, reporting that it had involved approximately 30 think tanks around the country and in Puerto Rico. She reported that the main areas of interest were education, research and professional issues, and that the next step will include a membership questionnaire which will be sent out by the task force in May.
Executive Director, Cheryl Kreider Carey, CAE, explained that an association consists of two professions; the subject matter experts and association management experts. She recognized the hard work of the Academy staff.

Group Discussion
The meeting participants broke into discussion groups by topic areas with Board members and Academy staff.

Adjournment
There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 1:55 pm.
